Cleveland Leisure Emay

Obituary in scrapbook of Jane Mohar, no paper is identified: "Died, at Jos. Leisure's, Friday, July 24, 1885, Cleveland, son of William and Fannie Emay aged about 10 months; disease, cholera intantum. Cleveland's sickness was of short duration and so great that no word could express, being sick about two days. He was a smart and sweet child, and all who knew him loved him. He is missed a great deal in the family. His little chair is vacant, and that sweet voice is silent in the grave. How he loved to play with his little sister and brother. As we bowed over the white casket we could hardly realize that our darling had been taken away. He leaves a kind father and mother, one sister and brother to mourn his loss. On Saturday, July 25th, his remains were taken to Hannegan for burial... E. G."
